Comments: This story starts out with a weird atmosphere. Bloody Mary has a couple of unexpected house guests that she welcomes. She tells one to leave when he does not she goes into a beserker rage. She is strong with fangs and claws, she goes totally nuts on this guy. She is fair though and gives a warning. She isn't all bad since she lets them all go.

The local preacher now something is wrong with him. The zombie girl is good and the preacher evil its a different twist.

The art is strange as at times Mary looks beautiful and sexy but easily switches to scary and hideous. This is not a T& A comic. It is though about a girl that will get you thinking and maybe even scare you a little. The simple writing style makes it clear this girl is disturbed.

The cover with her emerging from her grave is stunning. Her hair blowing in the breeze. She looks like something you would not want to meet at night.
