Rating: 4 out of 5 stars

Comments: This starts off weird as Mary talks to a little demon. He does seem kind of cute. Than we switch to an all girls slumber party. Where one girl is brave enough to summon Mary. It is a traditional horror setting. Now this mysterious gentleman shows up he works for the Ridder Corporation. He just happens to have a room full of weapons of all kinds. He is a hunter and he is after Bloody Mary. With all those weapons this guy will be a threat to her. Now the priest we see is so much more than just a priest. His evil permeates these pages. The demons with him are a various lot. Mary is a mystery we don't know if she is alive or dead. She has powers though and is learning how to use them. It is fun to go along with her as she explores what she can do. Mary does seem like one cute mystery wrapped in a conundrum.
