Comments: This comic created by Bobby Weiner has a unique and weird feel to it. It is unlike anything you have ever seen before.

Mary looks like a cute gothic chick. She has a strange sex appeal. Her friend has a cool weapon brass knuckles that spray holy water. They work great on demons. As Mary and her friend engage the demons it is an action packed battle. The blood is flowing freely. The priest though is pure evil which is brought across well in the drawings and writing. You know that even the demons are not even in his league. The evil just radiates from him. The glowing green knife he weilds is eye catching as it stands out.

Now Mary though she is shown as one tough girlie is not always. At the end we see her break down. She is just a girl no matter how tough killing, fighting demons, traveling to other dimensions can have an effect on anyone.

If you want something different, with action, fights and a cute girlie this is for you.
